Speaker Bio

Mike Tisa is the Director of Litigation Technology at Aptus Court Reporting. He is a Certified Legal Video Specialist and Trial Presentation Professional through the National Court Reporters Association (NCRA). Mike began his career in the legal field in 2007 and is continuously researching and implementing advancements in the legal-technology industry. Mike has presented at two NCRA conferences regarding Streaming Video Into the Courtroom and Multi-input/Picture-Picture High-Definition Depositions. Since 2008, long before the COVID pandemic, Mike has been involved in coordinating and facilitating remote depositions as they continue to evolve and has helped clients easily adapt.

Mike guest lectured at the University of California San Diego's Litigation Technology Certificate Program on Trial Presentation. Additionally, Mike acts as the trial technician on many cases, including personal injury, employment, and patent litigation.

Mike frequently appears on the Trial Technology & Litigation Support Podcast, a show featuring industry leaders and business developers discussing current issues and market trends.

Mike holds a Bachelor of Journalism degree from the University of Missouri as well as minors in Business Administration and Sociology.
